Civility in an Era of Hostility: An Interfaith Perspective

Interfaith Association of Central Ohio (IACO)
27th Annual Main Event Dinner
Sunday, August 18, 2019
Doors open at 4:30 pm, program begins at 5:00 pm

Bethel International United Methodist Church
1220 Bethel Road, Columbus, OH 43220

A Panel Discussion Led by Professor Paul Numrich of the Methodist Theological School in Ohio and Trinity Lutheran Seminary at Capital University

Panel Members: Nicol Ghazi, Muslim faith; Hari Narayanaswamy, Hindu faith, and June K. Gutterman, Jewish faith

There is abundance of incivility, hostility and polarization in our community, our country, and around the world. Professor Paul Numrich will moderate a panel discussion on ways to address this negativity from an interfaith perspective.

________________________________________________________________________

Registration Form

Name(s) ____________________________________________________________________ Phone number ____________________________
Address _____________________________________________________________________ City __________________ State_________ Zip ____________
Email address _____________________________ Faith/Worldview __________________________

Cost: $35 per person or $20 for high school/college student (includes vegetarian meal)

_____ #attending x $35 + _____ #attending x $20 = $_____________

Make your check payable to IACO and mail with this completed form to: IACO, 65 Jefferson Avenue, Columbus, OH 43215.

Deadline for non-refundable reservations: August 6, 2019

For more information, please contact us:
Phone: 614-849-0290 or E-mail: iaco@iaco.org

Funding has been made possible by:

Puffin Foundation West, Ltd.